

I support the recommendations set forth in RM-10867. I see it as a well rounded approach which will simplify and maintain the licensing structure and allow for growth in the amateur radio arena. I urge the FCC to adopt these recommendations in full without modification. Thank you for your consideration and allowing me to provide my point of view.